

Athlete of the Week

September 5, 2009

David Ray of Lake Norman High School

David Ray is a High School senior playing football for Lake Norman High School. As a senior David's role on the team is cornerback and running back. Last week against South Iredell, David had 2 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble and 3 tackles on defense alone. His offensive game proved to be just as impressive with 41 yards rushing on 6 attempts, 1 rushing touchdown leading his team to victory.

David is not only talented on the football field, but dedicated in the class room with an impressive 3.8 GPA. Like many student athletes, David struggles to balance school work, sports, work and his social life. His work ethic, and perseverance acquired during his years playing sports will help him to carry out his goals of playing football in college and obtaining a college degree.
